Female Student Assaulted

On Sunday, 02-26-06, shortly after midnight, a female UCSB student was reportedly assaulted while walking west bound along El Colegio Rd. She was walking past an open area about one half block east of the Francisco Torres Residence Hall when an unknown male approached her. The suspect engaged her in conversation then pulled her off the walkway onto an adjacent grass embankment. The woman said she fought the assailant causing him to flee.

At this time, there is no description of the suspect. The incident is currently under investigation by the UC Santa Barbara Police Department Investigative Bureau.

The UCSB Police Department also would like to remind students that the CSO program offers free evening and early morning safety escorts for those people walking in or around the UCSB and Isla Vista area. Just call 893-2000.

If anyone has any information about this incident, they are encouraged to contact the UCSB Police Department at (805) 893-3446 or Crimestoppers at 1-877-800-9100.
