Sexual Assault Reported On UCSB Campus

On June 25th, 2004, the UCSB Police Department received a report of a possible sexual assault that had occurred at the UCSB West Campus on June 24th.

A female UCSB student reported that she had driven with a male acquaintance to the UCSB West Campus. After parking near the entrance to the campus, the male sexually assaulted the female. He then drove the female into Santa Barbara and she was again assaulted. After the second assault the female dropped the male off at a separate location and she returned home.

The male has not been identified and has been described as an African-American male about 25 years old that goes by the nick name of "Ro" or "Pete Ro".

Anyone with information about this subject is encouraged to contact the UCSB Police Department at (805) 893-3446 or CrimeStoppers of Santa Barbara at 1-877-800-9100.
